FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

It is with great pride and honour that we welcome you to the ever expanding world of Dr. D.Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune; a place where education and research acquire new dimensions every single day. It is a place that believes in the combination of academia, values and Indian culture.

Therefore, it is not surprising that Dr. D.Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune has celebrated its sixth convocation this year. We, till date, have had extremely illustrious personalities like Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam, Smt. Pratibha Patil and Shri Sharadchandra Pawar to do these honours.

All of our esteemed guests have shared their experiences with our students and put them on the path to make their motherland and alma mater proud.

With a great deal of delight, we present to you all the recordings of the sixth convocation of Dr. D.Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune.

Dr. P.D. Patil

WORDS BY CHANCELLOR

It is said that just as teachers make students, students also make, or at least remould teachers. The statement rings the truest when academicians see their students holding their degrees proudly in their hands.

Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune, has celebrated its Sixth Convocation this year.

It was indeed an important event characteristic of our journey of mere ten years.

For an educational institute, sending out its students into society to cater to its needs comes with mixed feelings.

Today, as we let our students take on their share of responsibility and challenges in the outside world, we are confident, they will succeed, for we have not only tried to instill into them the words of wisdom of intellectuals, but have also tried to equip them with worldly, practical wisdom.

I must also stress on all (faculties, staff, students, management) to follow the sage advice of our honoured guests.

We are proud to put before you the proceedings of the Sixth Convocation of Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune.

Prof. K.B. Powar

VICE CHANCELLOR'S REPORT

The Chief Guest for today's Convocation ceremony,
Hon'ble Shri. Pranab Mukherjee, the President of India;
Hon'ble Shri. CH. Vidyasagar Rao, Governor of Maharashtra;
Hon'ble Shri. Sharad Pawar, Member of Parliament (Rajya Sabha);
Hon'ble Shri. Abhijit Mukherjee, Member of Parliament (Lok Sabha);
Hon'ble Dr. Raghunath Mashelkar, National Research Professor;
Hon'ble Dr. D. Y. Patil, Former Governor of Bihar;
Hon'ble Dr. P. D. Patil, President of the Vidyapeeth; Hon'ble Members of the Board of Management and Academic Council; Deans of Faculties; the proud Graduands of the day;
Students; Parents; Faculty Members; Staff of the Vidyapeeth; Distinguished Guests; Members of Press and Media; Ladies and Gentlemen: It is indeed my pleasure to welcome all of you on the occasion of the sixth convocation of Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune

It is my profound pleasure and proud privilege to welcome the Chief Guest of today's ceremony, Hon'ble Shri. Pranab Mukherjee, the President of India. We are extremely grateful to you Sir, for sparing your precious time from your busiest schedule and agreeing to grace this auspicious occasion with your august presence to motivate our students and generously offer them your experienced counsel regarding life, education and social commitments.

This is a very special moment, since we are blessed with the presence of the iconic visionaries such as Hon'ble Shri. CH. Vidyasagar Rao, Governor of Maharashtra and Hon'ble Dr. D. Y. Patil, Former Governor of Bihar.

It is my privilege to congratulate all the graduands, their teachers and parents. Degrees are being awarded at this Convocation to a total of 424 undergraduate, 324 postgraduate students and 23 Ph.D. fellows who have completed their studies and passed the examinations during this period. University Gold Medals will be awarded to 19 candidates who have secured highest marks in different disciplines.

Today we are conferring Honoris Causa degrees to three eminent personalities of India. It is not that we are honoring these three eminent personalities, but in fact they have honored us and the society at large, by accepting the Honoris Causa degrees from our Vidyapeeth. DPU will be proud to have such distinguished personalities as our Alumni.

Kindly allow me to take this opportunity to share with you some of the recent achievements and persistent developments at Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune. There are many milestones that DPU has crossed during the passing year.

In March, 2015 Vidyapeeth has been re-accredited by NAAC with a CGPA of 3.62 on a four point scale at A grade, which is presently the highest CGPA awarded to Health Science

University and fifth amongst all the universities in India by NAAC. I can possibly do justice to all the landmarks attained by DPU during last year only through the acknowledgment to all of the deserving graduates and academics that DPU has produced.

The Health fraternity has been the biggest facet of DPU and we are proud that we have been able to be on the forefront of transformation of the societal and national spirit by being indisputable and persuasive for the cause which we believe in.

Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune, strives to uphold international educational standards and develop a holistic world view among students. It provides unique learning solution that combines pedagogically sound and comprehensive courses for a variety of subjects with innovative learning and teaching resources focused on all-round student development. The curricula are designed to prepare students to skillfully meet challenges. They provide market-driven programmes and studies, developed, tested and continually improved upon by the faculty and other stakeholders through the assessment of outcomes and aimed at providing competency based, patient centered education in health sciences.

RESEARCH

We, at Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth focus on evolving and advancing the talent that has strong foundation in scientific research and in turn is/ would be able to cater & deliver the service towards the social and economic development of India. We provide our faculty the academic freedom, time, and resources to pursue their research at the highest levels of productivity. The Vidyapeeth can boast of the commendable performance of its faculty members, particularly for of their quality research output, which is demonstrated by nearly 500 publications since the last convocation in various peer-reviewed, national and international journals as well as conference proceedings, books and monographs. The Ph.D. programme in the University has also enhanced considerably during the recent years. Presently, there are 164 registered doctoral students. All thesis and research publications are checked for plagiarism through software available in the Vidyapeeth. Six Indian patents are filed from our Biotechnology Institute, of which one is on purification of water, one on DNA binding clues and four on probiotics.

Furthermore, two patents by a PhD scholar under faculty of Medicine for his work on gut sonography imaging have been registered.

It is not possible to give a full list of publications in esteemed refereed journals and individual research funding received, however, an account of some achievements given below is an indication of the quality of research at DPU.

- Recently 36 ICMR-STS projects have been sanctioned by ICMR to our Medical College, which is probably the highest number of projects sanctioned by ICMR to a single Medical College during 2015. Similarly 11 ICMR-STS projects have been approved for our Dental College.
- 7 concept documents by staff members under faculty of medicine are approved by ICMR.
- Institute of Biotechnology, has received a grant of SEK 1,70,000 (Rs. 12.85 Lakh) from FORMAS, Swedish Research Council, Sweden for Joint Project of "The emergence and persistence of novel resistance to 3rd

SOCIAL OUTREACH

Our focus has been to build an education system with the highest educational and ethical standards that encourages young coteries of the nation to be productive and socially responsible citizens within a caring collaborative learning community. We believe that excellence in Higher Education is not only about achieving outstanding results with outstanding faculty and students, but is also about appraising and apprising within a caring collaborative learning community. It also needs to be reckoned in terms of the value addition, by the institution, to the different stakeholders with different needs and expectations. Vidyapeeth has also developed a very effective interface with the society, through sustainable health care for underserved population, with special attention given to women and children in different villages through trainings, workshops, resource mobilization and technical support to improve the maternal and child health status in the community at large.

- All indoor patients in our hospital are provided free treatment along with highly hygienic diet. All types of sophisticated investigations such as MRI, CT Scan, Mammography, Colour Doppler, Ultrasonography, 2D Echo, are carried out free of cost for indoor patients.
- The Vidyapeeth has actively participated in the relief work for natural calamities like the floods in Kashmir and the landslide at Malin Village in Pune district. A multi-disciplinary health camp was organised by the Department of Community Medicine in association with the health Department of Maharashtra State and Zilla Parishad, Pune, at PHC Adivare near Malin, Fee waiver has also been given to our students, whose family has suffered due the recent floods in Kashmir.
- The Departments of Community Medicine, Public Health Dentistry and extension wings / cells of other institutions as well as NSS unit undertake extension and outreach activities throughout the year as per systematic plan and strategies. The rural and urban primary health centres at Alandi and Ajmera as well as satellite centres help in developing linkage between community, government, NGOs and DPU.

- As contribution to maternal and new born safety programs we have adopted 6 primary health centers where expectant mothers are examined and treated. We promote institutional deliveries and to facilitate this we have deployed an ambulance in the area (24X7) to transport women in labor from village to hospital free of cost.
- The 'Yashoda' Human Milk Bank run by the Department of Paediatrics has proved its value as a highly relevant social outreach activity to help in reducing neonatal morbidity and mortality in the area. This is the first of its kind to be started in a private medical college in Pune. The services are provided free of cost and are used mostly by people from lower socio-economic strata.
- DPU has implemented government schemes like Rajiv Gandhi Arogyadayee Yojana (2013). Sharda Gram Arogya Sanjivani Yojana (2012) and Mission Uday Kishore for adolescent care.
- Apart from these services for the patients from unreached areas, we conduct minimum 3 multi diagnostic camps every month mostly in remote rural and tribal areas that are popularly attended by more than 2000 beneficiaries.
- Dental College has organized more than 160 outreach programmes in collaboration of various NGO's around Pune District. The department also functions as the tobacco cessation centre, wherein, assistance is given to patients who want to quit tobacco habit.
- Biotechnology & Bioinformatics Institute participated in "Swacha Bharat Abhiyan" as an extension activity camp in Malavali, Tal. Maval, on 22nd November 2014.

- Nursing students participated for Pulse Polio Programme from 22nd February 2015 to 26th February 2015 in PCMC & Alandi area, wherein 3,877 Polio Doses were administered during their visit to 39,793 Houses in the area.
- Birth Anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel was celebrated by conducting "Run for Unity" event by NSS UNIT on 31st October 2014.

INFRASTRUCTURE

DPU has always endeavored to deliver quality education in a globally benchmarked learning environment through modern amphitheatre-styled air-conditioned classrooms, hi-tech labs and libraries which require tremendous encouragement and resources for which we have got active support from our President Dr. P. D. Patil.

Not only has the physical infrastructure been extensively modernized, the facilities and equipment have improved at a faster pace. Various equipments like High-end 128 slice CT scan, 1.5 Tesla MRI are available in the hospital. Keeping in view the tertiary health care facilities, on an average 5000 laboratory diagnostics, 800 imaging procedures and 1000 other diagnostics procedures are done every day. Out of 18 modular OT to be commissioned, construction of 8 imported OT has been completed. 9 intensive care units, with 140 beds catering to all disciplines, to name a few, transplant, burns, airborne infection isolation, trauma care are in the process of final commissioning. Expansion of hemodialysis services with 25 machines with an objective to serve 100 dialysis per day has been completed. Cardiac Cath labs with one electro physiology equipment are ready to serve the needy patients. It is proposed that in near future the IVF center, Epilepsy surgery center, Bone marrow transplantation services and multi disciplinary tumor clinic with special attention to breast disease will be started.

DPU has established a state-of-art Implant Centre at the Dental College for excellence in Implant care for teaching, research & collaborative exchange across the globe. I am happy to announce that DPU has granted Rs.5 Cr. towards the Central Research Facility which has been established during this year which is an interdisciplinary research initiative integrating various disciplines of Life Science. This new facility, I am sure will provide a further fillip to our research activities

We have a demonstrated commitment to quality. We also carry a legacy of a strong foundation for academic excellence. Being young citizens, all of you- the children of DPU- have the responsibility to work for Universal harmony by ironing out all the causes of conflicts in your zone of activities and also beyond.

Before I conclude, I would like to say to the young graduates that, dear fellows of DPU, the road ahead is long. However, the odyssey promises to be much more exciting. Please do have a constructive and positive attitude and do think in terms of solutions, and not problems. Take each challenge with “how you can” and not “why you can’t” and kindly remember that great opportunities come to those who make the most of the small ones. Set your goals higher and the glory will belong to you. It is said that when you shoot for the moon, even if you miss, you will land among the stars. Continue to perform well and remember your teachers & parents all through your life and I, urge you to remain worthy ambassadors and great Alumni of this distinguished Vidyapeeth by upholding the virtues of honor and excellence in service to the society around you and beyond.

Thank you

CITATION

Presented to

Shri. Sharad Pawar

One of the towering personalities in the contemporary Indian Polity is, Shri. Sharadchandra Govindrao Pawar, born on 12th December, 1940. He is popularly known as the front runner for the cause of Maharashtra and especially the farming community. Shri. Sharad Pawar was educated in this very city of Pune. He joined political career almost from the student days. As a youth leader he was groomed by another great leader of Maharashtra, namely late Shri. Yeshwantrao Chavan, the first Chief Minister of Maharashtra and later the Deputy Prime Minister of India. Shri Sharad Pawar was elected to the Maharashtra Legislative Assembly consecutively from 1967 for six times up to 1991. He was the youngest General Secretary of Pradesh Congress Committee, and Secretary of Congress Legislative Party.

He became Minister of State in 1972 and later on held many posts of being cabinet minister taking up the responsibilities of various departments. Since July 1978, he was the Chief Minister of Maharashtra and adorned that coveted position four terms. In the intervening period he was the President of Maharashtra Congress Committee (1984-85).

He has been Member of Parliament since eighth Lok Sabha (1991) up to fifteenth Lok Sabha (2009-14). Presently he is a Member of Rajya Sabha. He was Member / Chairman of various important Parliamentary Committees and also the JPCs. He was Union Minister of Defence (1991-93) and Minister of Agriculture (2004-2014). He holds a rare distinction of not losing a single election. He is a founder President of Nationalist Congress Party (NCP).

Shri. Sharad Pawar is known to be an able and highly respected pro-people and a nationalist politician, veteran parliamentarian, committed social worker, visionary agriculturalist, proven administrator, capable educationist, sports administrator and passionate environmentalist. He is an international iconic personality known for his contributions to the cause of social, political life and to agriculture. His outstanding contribution is towards the social upliftment of the common man in India and also towards effectively implementing policies in various sectors, ranging from Agriculture to Education for the development of the India. Shri. Sharad Pawar is a recipient of the "Outstanding Parliamentarian Award, 2003". He also has received an Honorary Doctoral Degree in Humanities by Lawrence Technological University, Southfield, Michigan, Detroit, U.S.A., D.Litt by Tilak Maharashtra Vidyapeeth, Pune, Doctor of Science by Orissa University of Agriculture and Technology, Bhubaneswar, Odisha, Doctor of Science by Vasantrao Naik Marathwada Agriculture University, Parbhani, Maharashtra.

A book titled "Fast Forward", a collection of his speeches, was released by the then Hon'ble Prime Minister of India in 2008. There have been many more books of his speeches and his personality.

Shri. Sharad Pawar has held several portfolios and memberships of various committees and groups that have helped India traverse this journey from a third-world country to a superpower. His policies as agriculture and food minister have helped revive India's agricultural sector, with harvests of wheat, rice, oilseeds, cotton, and sugarcane improving markedly during his tenure in the Agriculture Ministry. Internationally, the India-U.S. Knowledge Initiative launched during his tenure increased pioneering research in technology and agriculture between the two nations.

He is also the Chairman of the Vasantrao Naik Institute for post-graduate and certificate-level academic study, research, technology development, and consulting. To his belief, improving skill-based educational opportunities is a core which can continue to develop India as a global hub for software production, telecommunications, biotechnology and information technology.

In the field of Social and Cultural activities, he holds key positions as the President of Vasantrao Naik Institute of Pune, Nehru Science Centre of Mumbai, Vidya Pratishthan of Baramati, Pune, Rayat Shikshan Sanstha of Satara, Agriculture Development Trust of Baramati, Yeshwantrao Chavan Pratishthan of Mumbai and several other state and national level organizations. In his honour, for being a strong advocate of education, one of India's leading K-12 international schools is named after him.

In the field of sports, Shri. Sharad Pawar holds position of the President of Mumbai Cricket Association, Garware Club House, Maharashtra Kustigir Parishad, Maharashtra Olympic Association, etc. He also has held a position of the President of International Cricket Council (ICC) and Chairman of Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI), Maharashtra Kabhadi Association, Maharashtra Kho Kho Association.

In the international arena, Shri. Sharad Pawar has been active in the United Nations and World Health Organisation, winning praise for his leadership of the UN Disaster Management Team that provided relief for earthquake victims of Maharashtra's Latur and Osmanabad districts in 1993. An astute and visionary leader on the national stage and a statesman in the international arena, Shri. Sharad Pawar has made India proud at various forums and continues to serve humanity through his numerous organisations, committees, and institutes.

We, Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune, (DPU), as an expression of high esteem for his contribution towards social upliftment and as recognition for the tremendous advancements in the fields ranging as widely as defence, agriculture and sports, confer upon Shri. Sharad Pawar, the degree of Doctor of Letters (Honoris Causa) on this 26th June, 2015.

DPU and other dignitaries on the dais, faculties, students, and parents,

It is indeed a great honour and privilege for me to be with you on the occasion of the Sixth Convocation of the Vidyapeeth. I am grateful to receive the award of Doctor of Letters (Honoris Causa) Degree and accept it with all humility. It is my privilege to receive this award from Hon'ble Shri. Pranab Mukherjee, the President of India.

Thank you very much.

It is my privilege to get this award along with well-known scientist Dr. Raghunath Mashelkarji, who is known for intellectual property rights and R & D innovation, and also with Shri. Abhijeet Mukherjee, Member of Parliament, who is well known for his outstanding contributions in Social upliftment and Corporate Social Responsibilities. Congratulations to both of you.

At the outset, let me express my heartfelt thanks to the Vidyapeeth for conferring on me this honorary Doctorate, which I am proud to receive from the President, Chancellor and Vice Chancellor of this Vidyapeeth. I am glad to hear that this is one of the few universities, which has been moving step by step into higher levels of achievements in terms of excellence. The Vidyapeeth has sustained academic atmosphere and most significantly carrying out quality research output. It is a unique educational system and I would like to use this opportunity to say that in the years to come, this University could certainly become a model worth emulating.

I would like to compliment Dr. P. D. Patil and the entire faculty for quality education, inculcation of values and intellectual excellence, and providing state-of-the-art health care facilities in this semi-urban area. I want to congratulate all the students who are getting their Degrees today and especially those who are receiving Gold Medals for their excellent academic performance. I use this opportunity to wish each one of you the very best in your life.

CITATION

Shri. Abhijit Mukherjee

Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune, (DPU), provides quality education in diverse fields, while inculcating a strong value system and promoting intellectual excellence among its students, staff and teachers. Its wide-ranging professional programmes towards the creation of young medical professionals are enabled by world-class infrastructure and state-of-art training facilities. DPU is known for excellence, outstanding curriculum & teaching methodology, exemplary service to the Society, and contribution to the cause of higher education in India and internationally. As an organisation devoted to bettering the society, from time-to-time, DPU has been recognising, felicitating and decorating eminent personalities who have made significant positive contributions through their work towards a better world.

Shri. Abhijit Mukherjee, Member of Parliament from Jangipur, West Bengal, was born on 2nd January, 1960. A Mechanical Engineer from Jadavpur University, he has been playing a pivotal role in the field of rural upliftment and women's empowerment since his days with the Steel Authority of India Limited as General Manager, where he oversaw Personnel and Corporate Social Responsibility Programmes for the company. Shri. Abhijit Mukherjee in his corporate professional capacity, during his tenure at SAIL, adopted 79 villages in the remote areas of Jharkhand, Chhattisgarh, Bihar, Odisha, West Bengal & Madhya Pradesh and comprehensively developed them from scratch into 'Model Steel Villages' by not just creating basic infrastructure like safe drinking water, tube-wells for irrigation, internal roads, sewage, electrification and street lights through solar energy as well as, sanitation facilities to the disabled. He also took a lead in providing them with schools, sustainable income opportunities and promotion of arts, sports, and culture through recreational activities.

Medical and health care at the doorstep of needy, rural electrification through solar lights, sanitation, environment, women empowerment through free professional training in different trades especially for the women from backward regions, sustainable income generation through 'Self Help Groups', were also some of his major achievements.

He worked towards providing free medical facilities to the deserving and under-privileged sections of the society by organising health camps, where health check-ups and medicines were provided free of cost. Moreover, blood donation camps were also organised. As a result, lakhs of people of this country were benefited by this noble activity. He has taken painstaking efforts for providing free education to the children from under-privileged sections of the society through setting up exclusive schools with facilities of free education, mid-day meals, uniforms including shoes, text books, stationary items, school bags, water bottles and transportation in many areas. His efforts towards providing free mid day meal facility for under-privileged children was extended to the State of Chhattisgarh through Akshya Patra, a renowned NGO of this Country. As a result, people from backward areas started sending their children for education, and many such children received the God-sent gift for their lifetime. Stepping into the shoes of his Grand-father, Kamada Kinkar Mukherjee who was an ardent freedom fighter and also a member of Legislative Assembly of West Bengal, Shri. Abhijit Mukherjee has devoted his life to the real freedom of the down-trodden through his noble works over past three decades.

He is an avid student of Applied Mechanics. His love for Ancient History has taken him to various parts of India as well as the world. He is a staunch trekker and mountaineer, and of course as every Bengali, a strong supporter of football.

During 2011-12, he was Member of West Bengal Legislative Assembly & Member of COPU & Science and Technology. Due to his immense contribution to social upliftment and corporate social responsibilities, he is Member of Standing Committee on Water Resources & Parliament Library Committee.

We, Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune, (DPU), as an expression of high esteem for his contributions towards rural development, social edification and CSR activities for the progress of this great nation, confer upon Honourable Shri. Abhijit Mukherjee, the degree of Doctor of Sciences (Honoris Causa) on this 26th June, 2015.

Razdan, Vice Chancellor, DPU and other dignitaries on the dais, faculties, students and parents. I am grateful that this University has decided to confer Doctor of Science upon me.
Thank you very much.

I am delighted to receive this Honorary Degree from a University that plays a vital role in developing the potential and talent of thousands of students who come from different parts of the country and out of the country as well. It is a privilege to get this award with well-known scientist Dr. Raghunath Mashelkarji who is known for intellectual property rights and R&D innovation, and Shri. Sharad Pawar who is a Member of Rajya Sabha and known for his immense contribution towards social upliftment, for implementation of policies in areas of Agriculture and Education, and for his constant efforts towards the development of the Nation. Heartiest congratulations to both of them!

I would like to accolade Dr. P. D. Patil and the entire faculty for the quality that they have brought to this University. I want to congratulate all the students who are getting their Degrees today and especially those who are getting Gold Medals for their excellent academic performance and Ph. D. Scholars for their research work.
So, ladies and gentlemen, I once again thank the University authorities, the President, Chancellor and Vice Chancellor for asking me to join as an Alumnus of your University.

I must congratulate all the parents for the success of their children. Actually, it is the parents who really enjoy your convocation. I wish, you all good luck for your bright future and may all of you get great success. All the Best!

Those who have taken the degrees, those who have won the medals, they all look for opportunities for doing the best for the country. I wish them all the best and once again I thank you all; thank you very much.

CITATION

We are extremely proud to honour Dr. Raghunath Anant Mashelkar today. He is a pioneering scientist, whose towering contributions in both science as well as science leadership have been applauded all over the world. Formerly the President of Indian National Science Academy, Dr. Mashelkar is currently the President of Global Research Alliance, a network of publicly funded R&D institutes from Asia-Pacific, Europe and USA with over 60,000 scientists.

Dr. Mashelkar served with great distinction as the Director General of Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR), with forty laboratories and about 20,000 employees for over eleven years. The transformation of CSIR under his leadership into a performance driven and accountable organization has been recognised as one of the top ten achievements of Indian science in the 20th century.

Dr. Mashelkar has been honoured internationally. For instance, in over 350 years of the history of Royal Society, London, Dr. Mashelkar is the only Maharashtrian so far to have been elected as Fellow of Royal Society, an honour, which is considered as next to Nobel Prize. He was elected Foreign Associate of National Academy of Science (USA) - only the 8th Indian since 1870 to be so elected. He was elected Associate Foreign Member, American Academy of Arts & Sciences - only the 7th Indian to have been elected so far since 1780.

In 1998, Dr. Mashelkar won the JRD Tata Corporate Leadership Award, the only scientist to win it so far. In 2005, he received the Business Week (USA) award of 'Stars of Asia' at the hands of George Bush (Sr.), the former President of USA. He was the first Asian Scientist to receive it.

Currently the Chairman of India's National Innovation Foundation, Dr. Mashelkar has been considered as a pioneer in the Intellectual Property Rights movement in India. He spearheaded the successful challenge to the US patent on the use of turmeric for wound healing and also the patent on Basmati rice. These fights, besides creating the Traditional Knowledge Digital Library, gave the Indian traditional knowledge its rightful place in the Universal Knowledge Systems.

In the post-liberalized India, Dr. Mashelkar has played a critical role in shaping India's S&T policies. He was a member of the Scientific Advisory Council to the Prime Minister set up by successive governments since 1985. He has chaired twelve high powered so called 'Mashelkar Committees' dealing with complex issues of national importance.

Thirty three universities from around the world have honoured Dr. Mashelkar with honorary doctorates. The President of India honoured Dr. Mashelkar with Padmashri (1991), with Padmabhushan (2000) and with Padma Vibhushan (2014).

As a token of recognition of his outstanding science and science leadership, and especially for his pathbreaking efforts that enabled India to hold its head high in science, technology and innovation in the global setting, Dr.D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune, is proud to confer the Degree of Doctor of Science (Honoris Causa) on Dr. Raghunath Mashelkar, National Research Professor on this day, 26th June 2015.

Patil, Dr. P. N. Razdan, proud Graduates of the day, the equally proud parents, distinguished faculty, deans, ladies and gentlemen.

I am most grateful to the Vidyapeeth for doing me this wonderful honor. I especially feel honored that I'm receiving this honorary doctorate at the hands of our beloved and most revered Honorable President of India. I am also very happy that I am receiving this honor in my city, my great city of Pune with D.Y. Patil Vidyapeeth which is setting up new standards of excellence, new benchmarks in both education and research coupled with innovation. It's a great institution which is on the rise and I'm very proud to be its alumnus. I promise you as its proud alumnus that I'll do whatever I can to enhance the reputation of this great institution even further. It is true that I've been singled out as Raghunath Mashelkar for this honor but I really owe it to several-several people; my students, my gurus who showed me the way, my 20,000 colleagues for my CSIR family, whom I had the privilege to serve and lead for 11 years, this entire city of Pune which has given me such love for 40 years, encouraged me, and my family who is here, who did not mind me dedicating my life to the nation 24x7, day after day, week after week, month after month, year after year. But there is one person to whom I would like to dedicate this degree. And that is my mother.

My background is well known to you. Born in a very poor family, this poor widow came to Mumbai. She was illiterate; she was always in search of jobs every day. I studied under street lights as you know. But it was she, being uneducated, understood the value of education and said "education is the future". I remember when I was young and I would get 100 out of 100 in Maths but occasionally I would get 97. I was very happy with that 97 but she would sit there and say "Ramesh, where did you lose those 3 marks?". Setting very high benchmarks! And I remember one instance which was a big change in our life. She had gone in search of a job to what is called Congress House near Prarthana Samaj in Bombay, waiting in the queue, and she did not get the job because she had not finished her 3rd standard. Of course she could have lied and said I am a 3rd standard pass, but she did not. And on the way out she said "I am going to make sure that my son studies the highest ever degree and meets the highest ever education qualifications there are". So, after my SSC, I was going to leave the school but she said 'no, you must study'. I became B. Chem. Engg. and said to her "now I will take up a job". She said no. She, that uneducated lady had found out that there is a PhD. And when I finished my PhD, she said no, there's a post doctor research fellowship. She continued like this and I remember in 2006 she passed away and 3 months before her passing I had got my 25th honorary doctorate and then I went to her and told her this. She said "now I'm satisfied, now I can go". And 3 months after that, she was gone. So ladies and gentlemen I am here because of her. I am standing here because of her, so this honor goes to her, not me. Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Hon'ble Shri. Pranab Mukherjee, the President of India, Hon'ble Shri. C. Vidyasagar Rao, the Governor of Maharashtra, Hon'ble Padmashri Dr. D. Y. Patil, former Governor of Bihar, guests of honour Shri Sharadraoji Pawar, Shri Abhijit Mukherjee, member of Parliament, Shri GIrishji Bapat, Food and civil Supply Minister Govt. of Maharashtra, Dr. Raghunath Mashelkar, esteemed guests, press and media, parents and my dear young graduants....

On the occasion of 6th convocation of DPU, I extend a very warm and cordial welcome to you all.

This is a historic evening which is going to usher an unprecedented dawn upon our people. The University has today gained a unique grace due to the presence of Hon. President of India Shri. Pranab Mukherjee.

India is not only the cradle of human civilization, as famously said by Albert Einstein, but the Mother of all human civilizations also.....I dare say.

The same mother has given birth to great son of India Hon'ble Shri. Pranab Mukherjee, who is not only an astute academician but also a spiritualist with great depth. Like many sons of this great nation, Shri Pranab Mukherjee has set benchmarks in Public life, in this hospital will offer free treatment to one and all.

It is our pleasure to have Hon'ble Shri. C. Vidyasagar Rao, the Governor of Maharashtra among us. He has long illustrious academic and social background.

Hon'ble Padmashree Dr. D. Y. Patil, the founder of this educational complex is the visionary whose guidance and administration, in culture, in international relations and last but not the least in economics.

We, at the University, are playing a key role not only of building human resources but also of making the leaders who will make the nation proud.

I am pleased to bring to the notice of Hon'ble President that we are committed to serve the humanity. A loving pat on our back from you for our forthcoming project of the world class 1600 bedded hospital on this campus will go a long way in consolidating our humanitarian credentials. Sir, you will appreciate that encouragement has enabled us acquire the reputation of an institution with dynamic, versatile and high standards.

We have the honor of having respected Shri. Sharadraoji Pawar amongst us.

His futuristic thinking and policy decisions in the areas of agriculture, education and technology, industry, commerce and sustainable growth and sports have been path-breaking in India's growth chart.

He is an idol of many people, including me, from various walks of life.

Shri Sharad Pawarji has kindly accepted our degree of Doctor of Letters and has placed on our shoulders the responsibility of achieving new heights of excellence not only in education but in leadership also.

We are delighted to confer the degree of Doctor of Science upon Shri Abhijit Mukherjee. He has a considerably long corporate experience and has made a successful foray into public life as Member of Parliament. He is a hope for

He is renowned world over for his successful battle in placing India on global map of Intellectual Property Rights. His inspiring, pioneering and futuristic version of “Panchshil” has given women and children a pivotal role, in transformed knowledge and innovation driven India.

He is an outstanding scientist, an inspiring speaker, visionary leader and a great human being. He is one of India's most respected and admired global the entire education fraternity to help build bridges with the corporate world. He represents the aspirations of modern India and wants to carve an independent niche in National and International affairs.

No words can summarize the educational and scientific contributions of Dr. Raghunath Mashelkar who has graced this occasion by his presence and upon whom we are privileged to confer the degree of Doctor of Science. With this we are sure a new synergy would emerge between the Global scientific community and our University.

Last but not the least, I would like to stress that no organization, no institution and no nation can have any future without a proper channelization of young energy.

My beloved students, accept my heartfelt blessings to you all on this occasion of conferment of degrees and diplomas which I am sure you will cherish for the rest of your life.

Jai Hind

ADDRESS

BY HON'BLE DR. D. Y. PATIL

FORMER GOVERNOR OF BIHAR

Respected Mahamay Pranab Mukherjee Saheb, Respected Governor of Maharashtra, Shri Vidyasagar-ji Rao, Respected Shri Sharad Pawar, Member of Rajya Sabha and former Minister of Defence and Finance, Respected Girish Bapatji, Vice Chancellor, Pro Vice Chancellor, Respected P. D. Patil-ji, and brothers and sisters

Ego is the death of life and the death of ego is real life. Once you implement this you are humble. In whatever you plant from your conscious mind to your subconscious, your mind is purified and it gives results. That relation of a conscious mind and a subconscious mind is like that of a land and a farmer. Land will never teach you how to sow; you have to select the seed and you have to plant it. Sow good thoughts, reap good actions; sow good actions, reap good character; sow good character, reap good destiny. If you follow this formula, you're bound to succeed.

Let me tell you a story about George Washington. He was a peon; he used to ring the bell at work. And what was he chanting? He was chanting, "I want to become the President of America!" 27 years after that he became a senate member, then the Governor of one state and then ultimately he became the President of America. So your mind has some great strength!

Pranab Mukherjee Saheb, I actually wanted you to become Prime Minister of India. He has become the President, the beloved President of India! I, however, feel there will be an exception and he might become Prime Minister of India. It is this strong intuition of mine that I am expressing today.

God is omnipresent. God is within you, I salute that God.

आपको मैं नमस्का करता हूँ। परमेश्वर को मैं अभिवादन करता हूँ।
आपल्या हृदयात जो परमेश्वर आहे
त्याला मी अभिवादन करुन माझे भाषण समाप्त करतो.

CONVOCATION ADDRESS

BY HON'BLE SHRI. PRANAB MUKHARJEE PRESIDENT OF INDIA

Good evening. Honourable Governor Vidyasagar Rao, Governor of Maharashtra; Shri Girish Bapat, Honourable Minister Food Civil Supplies and Consumer Protections, Government of Maharashtra; Shri D. Y. Patil, former Governor of Bihar; Shri Sharad Pawar, MP Rajya Sabha; Abhijeet Mukerjee, MP Lok Sabha; Dr. R. A. Mashelkar, National Research Professor, national chemical laboratory, Pune; Sir P D Patil, President D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth; Professor R. N. Razdan, Vice Chancellor D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth; distinguished deans and faculties; members of the Board of Management; distinguished faculty and staff members; recipients of degrees, awards & medals; dear students; distinguished guests, ladies and gentlemen. I am indeed very happy to have the opportunity of being present on this happy occasion of the 6th convocation of D.Y. Patil Vidyapeeth.

Pune, for a very long period of time, has acquired its fame and carved a place in the nation and outside, for its learning. A number of magnificent institutions, including D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, have flourished in this region and have made immense contributions to the field of higher education in different branches and disciplines. Education is the key to the success of achieving the desired goal in life. Education not only enhances our capacity to learn and absorb but also to illuminate the society. It provides basic empowerment to a human being for marching steadily towards his goal. This Vidyapeeth was established in 2003 with a vision 'to see enlightened, cultured and economically vibrant India, developed through education in diverse disciplines'. Under the inspiring leadership of Dr. P.D. Patil and a team of highly dedicated teachers, this Institute has over the last twelve years contributed significantly towards the fulfillment of this objective.

I congratulate all of you for the progress made so far in terms of its remarkable growth and enhanced prestige. It is heartening to note that this Institute has been awarded with an 'A' grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council. University is at the top of the formal education pyramid. It is, therefore, incumbent on universities to guide the direction of progress of the society. Ancient India had a tradition of world-class learning institutions, represented by renowned universities at Takshashila, Nalanda, Vikramashila, Valabhi, Odantapuri and Somapura. These seats of learning dominated the world education system in higher education for eighteen hundred years and these institutions, like a magnet, attracted talented teachers and students from far and abroad. Not only Megasthenes and Wong Chang but a host of other scholars from China, Persia, Greece, and many other countries flocked around these universities, and through the cultivation of knowledge, education, and innovation human beings of the world were enlightened and benefited. Unfortunately, we could not retain that position with the destruction of Nalanda in the 12th century AD; the dominance of almost 1500 years in the world education scenario was lost to us. I am making this point almost as a ritual because my intention is not to ensure that some Indian institutions find their rightful place in the grading system of the world grading systems by reputed world rating agencies, but because I do believe along with the physical expansion of the higher educational infrastructure it is equally important that the quality of the education which we impart must improve substantially and be of world standard. And if we make efforts, we can achieve this, as we did in the past. That is the sole objective of making these remarks, almost like a parrot, in every educational congregation.

A higher ranking boosts the morale of students and teachers by increasing their growth opportunities. It can also help retain meritorious students who otherwise want to avail of higher education in foreign countries.

Right now, while I'm speaking before you, despite the existence of more than 730 universities, 36000 colleges, 30 NIITs, 16 IITs and scores of institutes of management, IACRs, 200,000 students of India, right now, are having their educations in foreign universities. We can reverse this process by improving the process of higher learning. How do we transform our universities into great learning centers? At first, there is need to link education with research and innovation in a seamless manner. Education disseminates knowledge while research creates new knowledge. Innovation converts that knowledge into wealth and social good. Promoting interdisciplinary research and research at under-graduate level, boosting collaborative research and joint research papers, and encouraging bright students to enter the research field are some of the steps required in this direction. Emphasis is being laid on research at the Vidyapeeth right from the beginning. I am glad to know that a PhD programme in all specialties was started in 2009 and today 22 PhD degrees have been confirmed. Particular focus is called for nurturing innovative ideas. The ingenuity of the grassroots innovators requires mentoring for development of viable products useful to the common man. Innovation clubs have been set up in several central institutions to act as a bridge between the academic community and innovators. I wish to see such platforms being built in our private institutions as well. Distinguished guests, faculty members, dear students, ladies, and gentlemen; changes needed in academic institutions are multi-dimensional. Adequate availability of good quality faculty must be ensured. Faculty must use latest pedagogy relying on ICT solutions for effective delivery of instructions. Faculty also must upgrade their knowledge of a subject through participation in refresher courses and seminars. Institutions must create synergy with other institutions for research partnerships, and sharing of course material and subject experts. Institutions must establish networks with the industry for guidance on projects, course design, and internship programmes. Our universities are the torchbearers of socio-economic development. The relevance of their teaching must extend beyond the classrooms, to the society and the nation. At the same time, they must, through their own example usher in socio-economic change. The Government initiatives aimed at faster economic growth, Swachh Bharat, Adarsh Gram, Digital India and Make-in-India, have the potential to lift India to the state of an advanced nation. Their successful implementation calls for participation by a wide section of the society. Our education, training, research and innovation must contribute to these national objectives.

Distinguished guests, ladies and gentlemen, our education model must not only develop the mind but also create positive mind-sets. Expanding a student's ability must go hand in hand with building his attitude. A creative mind-set combined with a positive attitude can help unearth solutions to problems afflicting the society, like malnutrition, affordable healthcare, efficient energy use, drinking water, and sanitation.

The objective of education is not merely the acquisition of knowledge and the production of competent manpower. At a macro level, education leads to nation-building. At the micro level, it must result in character-building in students. On this revered occasion, I am reminded of a Sanskrit Shubhashit from the Chanakya Niti Shastra.

Chanakya Niti Shastra. I quote:

न चौर हार्यम् न च राज हार्यम् ।
न भ्रातृभाज्यम् न च भारकारी ॥
व्यये कृते वर्धते नित्यं ।
विद्याधनं सर्वे प्रधानम् ॥

"Na chor haryam, na raaj haryam, na bhratabhajyam na cha bharaakari; Vyaye krate vardhate eva nityam, vidhya dhanam sarva dhan pradhanam" (unquote).

This is such a wealth which no thief can steal; such a wealth which no king can take away. It is such a wealth which cannot be divided even amongst brothers. And it is such a wealth which is not difficult to carry. Moreover, the more you spend it, the more you earn; it is never exhausted.

Before I conclude, I would like to address my young graduating friends who have obtained their degrees today from their Alma mater. When you leave the portal of this institution you have to face the world of reality where you will not have the careful guidance and nourishment of your faculty, and the care and love of your friends. This is a hard competitive world; you shall have to face it. But don't get panicky, because the skills that have been instilled in you, the knowledge which you have acquired here, and the performance of excellence that you have shown in your exams, will help you have confidence in yourself. Always believe that 'yes, you can do it! You alone have the power to do it; have the power to change the society; have the power to change the environment in which you live'. And you will find that all the herculean problems which appeared to be insurmountable will melt like air, thin air.

I request you, the exudation that has been administered to you by the Vice Chancellors as the parting advice to you, always remember –

Thank you.

Jai Hind.
